

Get the dirt on MacNeil

Once a MacNeil Customer, Always a MacNeil Customer.

Winning car wash systems don't happen by accident. At MacNeil, we know that they are the culmination of precision engineering, extensive research and development, and an experienced team that understands the most intricate operator needs.

Quite simply, we mastered the science of creating dependable car wash systems that can go the distance... and it shows. Our distributors are passionate about our great-looking systems that continue to outperform year after year. And our loyal fans truly appreciate that we always put safety and reliability first.
