

PRO-COAT FINISH EXCLUSIVE TO MACNEIL

GUARANTEED CORROSION-RESISTANT FINISH

All MacNeil's steel superstructure components are treated with a Pro-Coat finish and backed by a multi-year warranty against corrosion.

Pro-Coat

Combines two powder coatings. The 3M™ epoxy powder base coat provides corrosion protection and resists chemicals, wastewater, detergents and salt water. The glossy polyester resin top coat easily wipes clean.

Features

- Resistant to over 100 chemicals including salt, soap & detergent
- Glossy surface resists mineral build-up and is easy to clean and maintain
- Using Pro-Coat allows MacNeil to build equipment out of high-strength steel for long lasting durability

Customize your Tunnel Branding

- Pro-coat is available in standard silver-grey or black, or custom red, blue or yellow finish

1. BLAST & PREHEAT

2. APPLY 3M EPOXY

3. BAKE

4. APPLY POLYESTER RESIN

5. POST BAKE

Pro-Coat Application Process

1. Steel is sandblasted and pre-heated to 475°F.
2. 3M™ epoxy powder is applied with electrostatic spray equipment. The heat of the steel turns the powder to a gel.
3. Steel is baked again and then a polyester resin powder is applied.
4. Steel is baked for the final time and then allowed to cool. The powders gel, harden and bond to the steel.
5. Result: a uniform and attractive finish made to withstand years of use in a car wash.
