MacNeil's New Investor Course Presented by the College of Clean Goes on the Road in 2018

Grimes, Iowa – (Dec 14, 2017) – We are excited to announce that MacNeil's New Investor Course presented, by the College of Clean, will be offered on the road in 2018. This jam-packed one-day course will familiarize participants with the ins and outs and secrets of starting a car wash. We will teach you topics including Car Wash Industry Overview, Site Selection and Layout, Equipment overview, Operations, Financing and more!

"By offering the MacNeil New Investor course on the road, we're able to better accommodate the need for training courses in major car wash markets," says Michael Gillen, CEO of National Carwash Solutions. "Investing your time with our industry experts is the best way for new investors to learn how to get into the car wash business and make money."

The New Investor course location is Arlington, Texas, and is taking place on February 24, 2018, one day before the SCWA Show. The course will be taught at the Sheraton Hotel -1500 Convention Center Drive- the SCWA show's preferred hotel. If you are attending the SCWA show or reside in the area, you must capitalize on the opportunity to attend.

What students will learn:

- How to evaluate opportunities and different car wash business models
- How to secure financing for your new car wash business
- How to properly select the best equipment for your site
- How to write a business plan to maximize profits
- And much more!

To kick off the course, a private dinner will be provided the night for participants to meet industry experts in a casual setting. Breakfast and lunch will be provided during the course.

Prospective students can learn more about enrollment by contacting a representative at 855-893-1393 or by emailing collegeofclean@NationalCarWashSolutions.com, or by visiting: NationalCarWashSolutions.com
